

Iliad Bookshop's November 2023 Newsletter (#82)

Hi Gang!

How was your Halloween? We sold through this year's order of Halloween tees in record time - hopefully you got one (and if not, sorry - they're gone). If you celebrate Dia de los Muertos, we hope it's full of rich remembrance and happy spirits.

Now I suppose we need to start looking ahead to that other holiday...*sigh*...

Hope you're enjoying these beautiful cooler fall days.

Dan, Lisa, Poul, Matt and Sean (and Zeus and Apollo)

WHAT'S IN THE SAFE?

Have you ever noticed the big safe full of books behind Iliad's front counter? We get asked about it frequently. "Is it really old?" is a common question (the answer: no, we bought it new just a few years ago). But most customers want to know what kind of books merit storage in a safe (we think of these as the rarest of our rare books), so in this column we'll pick one book every month and tell you about it. This month's book is...

MALORY
LE MOYNE
D'ARTHUR

Our eBay Store

Over at eBay, we are currently offering some vintage issues of Sunset magazine, lots of plays (hey, are you contemplating putting on a production of Bat Boy: The Musical or Picasso at the Lapin Agile and you need multiple playscripts?), a book on Grand Prix racing signed by 25 drivers, and more.

ZEUS AND APOLLO

Two of our longtime regular customers just brought their very own Little Dude into the store for the first time, and he got to meet Zeus!

Meanwhile, employee Matt caught Apollo in what we're calling a "Hey, girl" kinda mood.

We'd love to include your photos in our newsletter! Feel free to send to info@iliadbooks.com , let us know that it's okay to use the photo, and we'll include it in a future newsletter.

If you need more photos/videos of Zeus and Apollo, or any of Iliad's past felines, please visit our Pet Gallery.
